

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY FOR EAP (ENGLISH FOR ACADEMIC PURPOSES)

PETE SHARMA ASSOCIATES

Course aims

For EAP teachers wishing to develop their knowledge, skills and confidence in using educational technology

Participant teaching experience

The course is for native and non-native speakers (min B2 level) with a minimum of one year's teaching experience, and at least a basic TEFL qualification.

Course cost: US$ 200

Course dates On demand

Course delivery: Face-to-face onsite / Online with Zoom for webinars

Course participants: min. 12 max. 20

Education technology experience

Little education technology experience is required, but word-processing skills are preferred. Access to the internet will be essential via computer or tablet, plus a headset with microphone.

Background of tutor

All PSA tutors are highly qualified and with extensive global experience.

Course details

The course total time is 12 hours

Course content

- Academic vocabulary / online dictionaries
- Speaking including: effective academic presentations with Prezi / using Socrative and voting tools
- Listening including: using course book listening / authentic listening
- Reading including: eBook readers
- Writing including: collaborative writing / wikis / plagiarism and using Turnitin / i-Annotate and Camtasia for feedback / Sonocent for note-taking / referencing with Mendeley / citation app
- Virtual Learning Environments
- Concordancers and data-driven learning (DDL)
- MOOCs (Massive Open Online courses)
- Final course assignment

Assessment of participants

Participants will be assessed and will receive a pass, merit or distinction.
The assessment is based on submission of coursework and the final assignment.

Certificate

There is a PSA Certificate for all who complete the course.

Materials All participants receive a copy of the Vocabulary Organizer (Sharma and Barrett) 2015 Collins

Pete Sharma Associates Ltd is incorporated in England and Wales, number 6711057. Registered office: 1 Hill View Cottages, The Drove, Blackfield, Southampton, SO45 1XB, England